EARTH CANVAS

Earth Canvas is about connecting people to the farming landscape and using the eye of the artist to express what they see. It is about empowering people to be part of the solution to make planet earth a better place.

IDRIS MURPHY

Artist Idris Murphy says "The Landscape is a very important part of me. I have young memories of life on the land. The feeling is remarkable. Art is an articulation of something not seen."

KIRSTY YEATES

Kirsty Yeates, Agro-ecologist at the world leading Plant Science Division ANU & Research Co-ordinator at Soils for Life will give a cutting-edge presentation on modelling tools that enable farmers to imagine, create and test different farm system designs and strategies.

JILL & IAN COGHLAN

Eurimbla is a Red Poll and Shorthorn stud on the western slopes of TableTop mountain. We use techniques such as multi species pasture cropping to increase productivity and healthy soils.
