

Earth Canvas

Farm and Art Open Day

Saturday 8 October 2022

Regenerative Farm Tour +
Art Talk + Picnic in the Paddock

Hear The Regenerative farmers, artists, soil scientist & First Nations' perspective on land management. A day on the farm and in the paddock.

Visit the panoramic Millpost Farm, a 1200 ha property on Ngunnawal/Ngambri country between Queanbeyan and Bungendore NSW.

Schedule

9.00am to 9.45am

Exhibition tour at National Museum of Australia.

10.30am to 3.30pm

Millpost Farm Bungendore (312 Millpost Lane Bungendore NSW). Option to self-drive or bus from NMA to Millpost.

Includes picnic lunch and tea/coffee.

Bus option from Museum.

The Watson family run a commercial fine wool Merino enterprise supported by a Permaculture whole-farm plan and Holistic Management grazing practices.

Harry Watson said "working with Alexander on the Earth Canvas project has reinforced our role as stewards of fragile country with a deep and troubled history and underlined the importance of thinking of and managing for many generations into the future."

Alexander Boynes and Tristen Parr, 'Listening Across Time' 2022. Ink and enamel on aluminium composite panels, 120 x 360cm, HD video with stereo sound, 5'30" duration

Artist Alexander Boynes artwork seeks to address a holistic approach to what regeneration in contemporary Australia looks like, not just through caring for our shared environment in the face of the Climate Emergency, but how all Australians can respect and acknowledge this country's 65,000 years of First Nation's history.

Earth Canvas is about reconnecting people with the regenerative farming landscape and using the eye of the artist to express what they see.

Book tickets: trybooking.com/CBJLT

Book tickets: trybooking.com/CBJLT

Adult $25, Students $15 (under 16), Families $75 (2 adult 2 child).
Bus from NMA $10. Prices exclude GST.

For further information please contact:
Gillian Sanbrook 0428 696 724 Email info@earthcanvas.com.au

THIS EVENT IS SUPPORTED BY THE AUSTRALIAN GOVERNMENT,
THE ACT GOVERNMENT AND EARTH CANVAS INC